Why is Training Important?

Training focuses on specific job knowledge and skill that is to be applied in the short run, with long term consequences.

Training considers an individuals weakness and strengthens those skills.

Training enhances personal growth

and confidence.

Training assists in an organization's success due to better job performance.

Training keeps one up-to-date.

What is the current situation with training opportunities in the
